Package ‘just.install’

October 13, 2022

Title  Very Simple Function to Install Packages without Attaching Version 1.0.2
Description
Install packages without attaching them. If a package it is already installed, it will be skipped.
License  GPL (>= 3)
Encoding  UTF-8
RoxygenNote  7.1.2
Imports  remotes, dplyr, utils
Suggests  knitr, box, rmarkdown, tibble
VignetteBuilder  knitr NeedsCompilation no
Author  Carlos Yanez Santibanez [aut, cre]
Maintainer  Carlos Yanez Santibanez <carlos.yanez.s@gmail.com>
Repository  CRAN
Date/Publication  2022-01-28 21:00:08 UTC

R topics documented:

install_package ......................................................... 1 justinstall .......................................................... 2

Index

install_package  internal function to that installs a single package based on data provided

Description

internal function to that installs a single package based on data provided Usage

install_package(package_name, source_type, source_param)

Arguments

package_name  package name source_type  where it should be installed from source_param  repository source, where it applies

Value

no output

Description

Simple utility to install packages from a number of sources. It only install if it not present already. It does not attach any packages, existing or to be installed.

Usage

justinstall(to_install)

Arguments

to_install  tibble or data.frame with packages to install (see vignette for details)

Value

no output

Examples

Not run:
to_install <- tibble::tibble(package=c("tidyverse","ochRe","customthemes"), source=c("CRAN","Github","r-universe"), url=c(","ropenscilabs/ochRe","https://carlosyanez.r-universe.dev"))

just.install::justinstall(to_install)

End(Not run)
Index

install_package, 1
justinstall, 2